

SYNTHESE

PROTEK

MATHYS

"Excellence in orthopaedic surgery is an ongoing process of evaluation, learning, and teaching, in which the importance of manual skill, pre-operative planning and documentation can never be emphasized too much."

From Prof. Maurice E. Müller's Presidential Guest Lecture at the 1986 AAOS Congress, New Orleans, Louisiana